

First Night® Saranac Lake 2009

Saranac Lake will host its third annual First Night® Saranac Lake on New Year's Eve. Entertainment for all ages will be provided including mask making; a snowperson building contest; parade; ecumenical service; twenty-one acts including a variety of music performances, comedy, story telling, magic and more; a snowflake ball drop; and fireworks.

Click on the web site www.firstnightsaranaclake.org for a description of performers; schedule of performance times and venues; food venues; and other activities.

Purchase a $10 Admission button for the entire night of entertainment. Children 12 and under are free. In Saranac Lake, First Night® 2009 Buttons are available at the Adirondack Daily Enterprise, Ampersound Music, Blue Line Sport Shop, Books & Baskets, Saranac Lake Area Chamber of Commerce, and Snap Shot Photo; and in Lake Placid at the Visitors Bureau. The buttons will also be available on New Year's Eve at the Saranac Lake Chamber of Commerce.

Interested in volunteering? Volunteers will receive a free admission button in exchange for two hours of volunteering. Contact Gail Meyer at meyer66@verizon.net or at 891-3353.
